

TEACHER SHORTAGE SOLUTIONS

A Pipeline of Highly Skilled & Future Educators

Travel Teachers | Future Teacher Program | Selected – Online Teacher Hiring Platform | Permanent Teacher Placements

Our Teacher Shortage Solutions help schools maintain a continual supply of highly qualified talent.

The teacher shortage continues to grow. The “great reshuffle” has put pressure on the supply of educators, with many taking extended leave, resigning or considering a permanent career change. More than ever, students across our nation need passionate, dedicated teachers and educational support professionals.

That’s why we created a suite of Teacher Shortage Solutions. We know you need positions filled now. We also know the best teachers aren’t always nearby; they’re often scattered across the nation. Plus, there are caring and qualified future educators out there eager to make a difference today. So, we’ve fortified our pipeline of teachers who are willing to travel and future educators who can work in support roles. Our professionals are passionate about their careers and ready to fill your workforce needs as:

- General education teachers
- In-house substitute teachers
- Special education aides
- Office support
- Special education teachers
- Behavior aides
- Teaching assistants
- Health aides and more

Future Teacher Program

We identify the next generation of future teachers and nurture them throughout their pathway towards becoming a teacher. Your school benefits from passionate professionals while we provide free training at no cost to your school.

Selected

Selected is an online teacher hiring platform that offers schools access to over 40k teachers. For a low, fixed monthly or annual subscription, schools receive unlimited permanent hires, messaging and job postings.

Travel Teachers

Our nationwide reach gives us access to professionals all over the country who might not otherwise find your school. Our travel teachers can be placed at your school for 8-40 weeks, so you’re sure to find a fit.

Permanent Teacher Placements

For schools that need more support for permanent hires, we offer teacher placement services. Your school will benefit from our market expertise as we drive applicants nationwide to your school.

Experience and expertise. You’ll be partnering with an award-winning, educator-led agency that knows what it means and what it takes to make a difference in students’ lives.
